

Travellers Rest Plantation & Museum

19th Century Trades Festival

October 15 & 16

9 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Come enjoy an old fashioned Tennessee fall on the plantation at the Travellers Rest 19th Century Trades Festival! Step back in time to 200 years ago and watch history come alive through the work of over thirty talented artisans and re-enactors. Converse with a Colonial doctor, or learn the art of soap making...maybe even discover what a flintknapper does! Period demonstrators and re-enactors include blacksmithing, basket weaving, spinning, weaving, civil war and frontier life plus much, much more. A wealth of hands-on activities await such as clothes warshin', sack races, rolling hoops, quill pen writing, doll making, candle dipping, corn grinding and perhaps a few surprises. Picnic lunches are welcome...so you can sit for a spell or visit with us all day! Come on out and experience Nashville's oldest historic house alive with history!
